Florence Gardens Hosts Civic League Holiday Tour of Homes

Hundreds of Gulf Coast residents flocked to Florence Gardens on December 13 to celebrate the beginning of the holiday season with the Gulfport Civic League Holiday Tour of Homes.

Attendees made their way to the homes of four Florence Gardens families—Rick and Cathye Amos, Bob and Barbara Clower, Duncan and Shelby Fox and Brandon and Allison Pike—to enjoy their holiday décor. Magnolia Hall served as the tea house, where guests enjoyed home-baked cookies, quiche, punch and live holiday music.

All proceeds benefited the purchase of equipment and services for those in the Gulfport community with special needs.

Back by Popular Demand—Sunday Brunch

Due to the overwhelming response from Florence Gardens residents and friends to the Sunday Brunch that was recently held at Magnolia Hall, we are planning another to be held in the upcoming months. Stay tuned for more information.

The inaugural brunch was hosted by Florence Gardens, along with events partners Catered Thymes and John D. Folding & Associates. In the spirit of holiday giving, all proceeds from went to benefit the Make-A-Wish Foundation of South Mississippi.

Need a Haircut?

Louis Petermen, a new Florence Gardens resident and a hair stylist at Salon Lush in D'Iberville, is offering haircuts at Magnolia Hall on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Appointments are available on a first-come, first-served basis by contacting Ryan Goldin (ryan@florencegardens.com or 539-5086 ext. 21).

PHOTOGRAPHY CONTEST

Florence Gardens is one of those places that is beautiful in every season— deer frolic in the Winter, flowers blossom in the Spring, children splash in the pool during the Summer and autumn colors blaze during the Fall.

If you have photographs that capture the seasonal splendor of Florence Gardens, we invite you to submit them as part of our Photography Contest. Whether they are shots of flowers or fawn, or candid shots of people or places, we would love to see them.

Prizes will be awarded and the photographer will be credited if shots are used in Florence Gardens advertising.

Email photos to Rachel Rath (rachel@florencegardens.com) by noon on Monday, February 1, 2009.
